

1. May Pope Francis, Cardinal Cupich, and Monsignor Ocariz always embrace Christ's divine love, mercy, peace, and joy as they strive to bring all the faithful closer to God's kingdom here on earth.
2. May God, the Creator of All and source of all that is good, shower His infinite love on all the priests and members of Opus Dei, and faithful everywhere, as they work to glorify God through the daily activities of life.
3. We ask that Christ himself, who knew pain and suffering like no other, welcome Jerry into eternal life with divine mercy, as one of God's good and faithful servants.
4. May Jesus, through the intercession of His holy Mother and Joseph His father, offer Anne Marie the comfort, peace, and support that she will inevitably need in the days, weeks, and months ahead.
5. We pray that Jesus, who knows what it is to love a human father and grandfather, wrap all of Jerry's children, children-in-law, grandchildren, grandchildren-in-law, and great grandchildren in His infinite love and mercy now and for all eternity.
6. May God extend His mercy and love to all the faithful departed, that they may be granted entrance into the presence of the Lord and spend eternity in His divine presence.
7. May the example of Jerry's faithful acceptance of the cross of his bodily suffering serve as an example to the living of the great peace and joy that comes with acceptance of Christ's will over our own.
8. We ask for God's blessings, love, and mercy on those who cared for Jerry's needs over the many years of his disease. May God reward their kind and gentle support of Jerry with everlasting joy that only comes from Christ.
